

New Class Offerings and Classics

The Real Estate Market is changing quite rapidly and it is the responsibility of the Education Department to offer current real estate topics in the classroom setting. This will help our members with their success in the field of real estate.

Not today's market!

Recertification is around the corner but there is no need to wait. Take the classes you need now for the current market!! The market may change by the time we enter into the time for recertification. Don't delay!
